Who is a Job's Daughter?

- A girl who likes to have fun!
- A girl who likes to be involved!
- A girl who is curious about herself, about others and about her world!

Who can be a Job's Daughter?

- Girls 10-20 years old who want to have fun, meet other girls, and explore belonging to a safe, wonderful organization of girls who are just like her and who also have other interests and ideas.
- Girls who are a relative of a Mason, no matter how distant.

That is a Job's Daughter!

Why would a girl want to be a Job's Daughter?

- She can become a member of a large team. There are Job's Daughters all over the world!
- She takes pride in expanding her special skills and talents while growing in confidence and ability in a safe environment.
- She has an opportunity to make friends with developing young women of different ages and backgrounds while participating in a variety of new activities.
